Covetousness

I betrayed the Lord for thirty pieces of silver.

I led Ananias and Sapphira to lie unto the Holy Spirit.

I tried to buy the gift of the Holy Spirit with money.

I stirred up a riot against Paul because his preaching of the gospel was ruining the trade of image-makers.

I clothe myself in the garments of economy, and whisper, "Don't waste money on good church buildings."

I attire myself in the gown of love and the mask of patriotism, and declare: "We have enough heathen at home! Let's not worry about missionary work."

I disguise myself in the cloak of caution and warn the brethren in these words: "Don't be throwing your money away; the Orphan Homes may get enough support elsewhere."

Verily, my sisters, Lying, Theft, and Fleshly Lusts have slain their thousands, but I have slain my tens of thousands!

My name is Covetousness—"which is idolatry."

THE ASSEMBLY

MY PRESENCE—Caused people to have confidence in me and to know that I regarded my spiritual welfare and that of others of importance; had a good effect on the service; made my friends feel more welcome; encouraged the brethren and helped the preacher; caused others to come to the house of God; made my life stronger for another week; removed stumbling blocks from the sinners path; pleased God, and I was happy; it caused others to say, "He practices what he preaches."

MY ABSENCE—Caused some to question the reality of religion; made some think that I was just a pretender; suggested that I regarded my spiritual welfare and that of others as a matter of small concern; weakened the effect of the services; made it harder for the preacher to preach; discouraged the brethren, and therefore robbed them of a blessing; caused others to stay away from the services; made it harder for me to meet the temptations of the week; gave the devil more power over lost souls; and it was in disobedience to the plain commandment of the Lord. THINK ON THESE THINGS.
