THE DEVOTIONAL PERIOD of the service last Wednesday was directed by Bro. GEORGE HILL, with JOHN HOBBS leading the singing, BOB CHRISTOPHER leading the prayer, and JERRY HOBBS and TED CLEMAN reading scriptures.

OUR CONDOLENCE is extended to those bereaved by the loss of loved ones. Funeral services were held for Mr. W. J. BAKER, father of SISTER CHESTER LONG and SISTER FOYE REAVES, formerly of this congregation, last Monday. Services for Mr. H. R. CARTER will be held here at Tenth and Broad next Tuesday morning at 10:30. A son, BOB CARTER, and two nieces, Mrs. J. H. Buzzell and Mrs. Dubose Pipes of this congregation, are among those who survive him. Funeral services for Mr. HARRY MALE, father of Bro. TOM MALE, were held last week in Ft. Worth, Texas

THE SICK: MRS. BILL STIRMAN is in room 401 at the General. MRS. SAM WINSTON is in room 344 and is to undergo surgery this week. MR. JAMES BEASLEY has been in the hospital during the past week. MRS. ORA T. YOUNG is in room 329 at the Bethania.

NEWS NOTES

BRO. GEO. HILL preached in Iowa Park the past two Lord's Days.

The RAYMOND ADCOCKS' new address is 4208 Meadowbrook, phone 7-3848, zone 17. The GEORGE R. BLOODGOOD family has moved to 1214 Monroe, zone 8.

Our thanks to MARTHA McCLUNG AND BILLY LEDBETTER for straightening the library last week.

BRO. HILL, LETA HEDRICK, and MARTHA McCLUNG attended the Teachers' Workshop at Abilene Christian College on July 29th and 30th. It would be worthwhile for every teacher to plan to attend next year.

The A. C. McFARLINS and RAYMOND ADCOCKS spent their vacation in Glennwood, Springs, Colo. MR. & MRS. C. P. PRICE and JEAN and REBECCA HODGES plan to spend the month of August visiting the northwestern states and Canada. Also vacationing in Canada are Misses Edna Ruth and Faye Brandon. MRS. J. H. BUZZELL and JEANIE are visiting friends in Ft. Smith, Ark. The BILL LEES have returned from a trip to South Texas. The C. J. JACKSONS plan to attend the 68th encampment of a Church camp in Nolanville, Texas. DOIE FORD is home after serving as a counselor at the Camp Fire Girls Camp in Ft. Jo, Texas.

The W. J. BAKER family wishes to express their thanks and appreciation for all of the kindnesses shown them during their recent bereavement.

"In appreciation of your kind expression of sympathy."

- The I. C. Hubbard family

"Your comforting expression of sympathy will always be remembered with deep gratitude."

- The Shackelford Family

"Thanks for the beautiful flowers".

- Mrs. H. E. Miller

BRO. GEO. STEPHENSON will be speaking on the Herald of Truth program on station KFDX at 1 p.m. today. His subject will be "Not By Bread Alone".

AREA SINGING will be held this afternoon at 2:30 at the Church of Christ in Iowa Park. Bro. HILL has been asked to direct the service.

BRO. McCLUNG leaves tomorrow for Inglewood, Calif., where he will conduct a meeting from Aug. 14 thru 24.

SERMON SUBJECT for this evening's service will be "Counting the Cost."

SEVERAL HUNDRED NEW BOOKLETS are in the racks in the foyer of the building. Take them for your edification and for use in teaching others. Let us make the best possible use of each one of these booklets. Give them to your friends and mail them in your letters.

22 WERE PRESENT FOR THE NEW HIGH SCHOOL CLASS which began meeting last Sunday evening. Following the class the group attended services at Iowa Park where Bro. Hill was preaching. A social period was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Flowers.

THREE YOUNGSTERS FROM TIPTON HOME are visiting with members of this congregation. Miss OTHELLA JAMES spent last week with the Paul McClungs, and will spend this week with the Marlin Flowers and others. Jackie Blake is visiting with the O. N. Childers, and Dale Holloway with the Bill Lees.

YOUNG PEOPLE, REMEMBER THIS DATE! We are sending out invitations to the junior and senior high school and college students of the churches in this area to meet with our young people on the night of Friday, August 26th. After enjoying the meeting planned by the Flora Heights Church last month, we are anticipating a splendid turn-out from many places.

WHY NOT ATTEND TRAINING CLASSES THIS EVENING AT 6:30?
